

Coloring Book For the Children

This is my puzzle; can you find; the bank,
the school, the bakery, the farm, the play ground, the road and the bridge? What else do you see?

Big Eyed Sunglasses Kids.....from all over the World...they want to see how you color them.

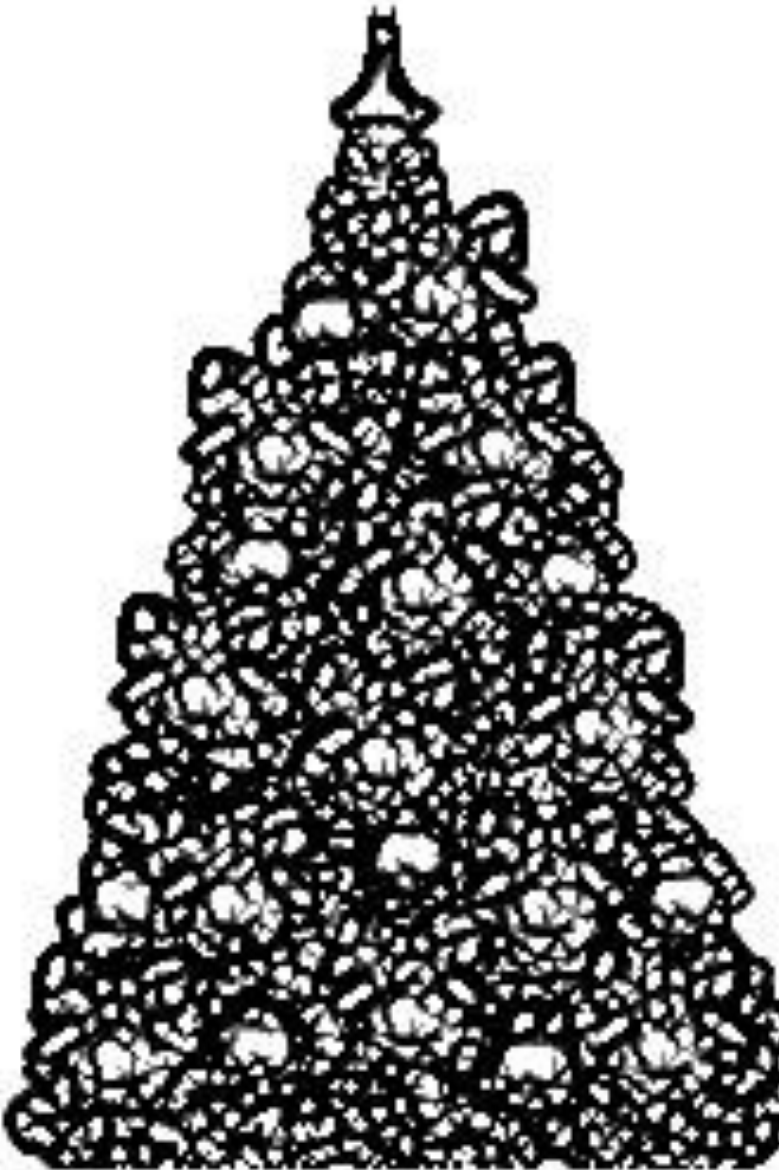

Would you color my Angel and Tree and Apples?

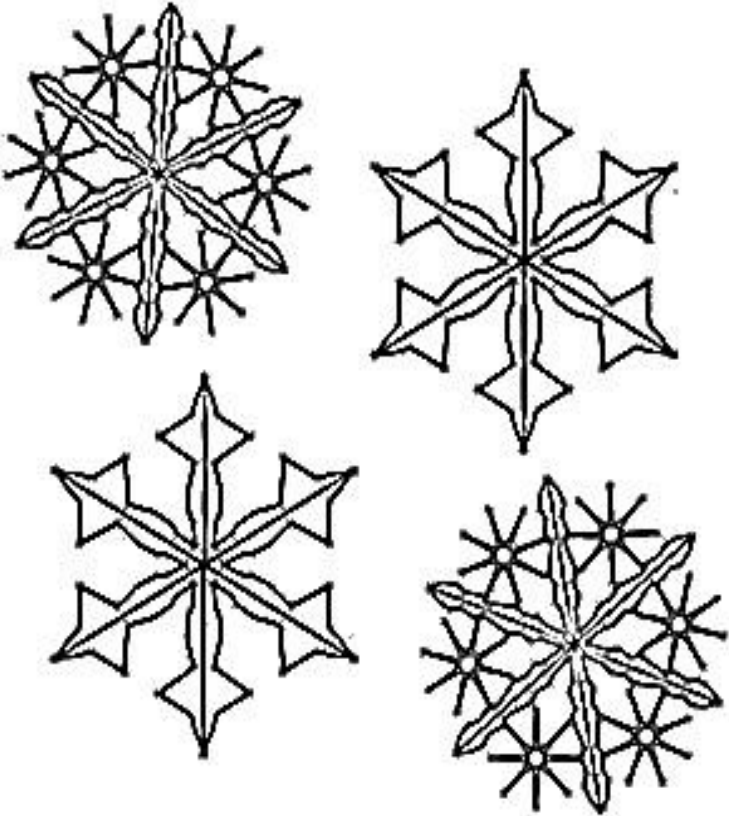

Could please color the Wreath ?

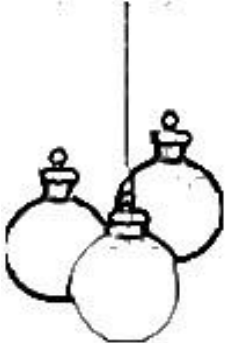

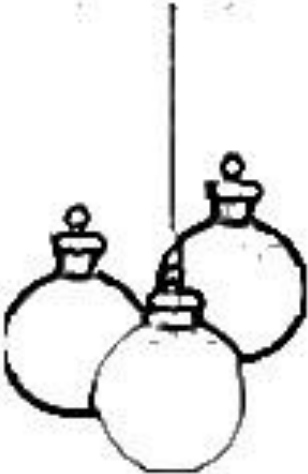

Please color my Tree for me.....

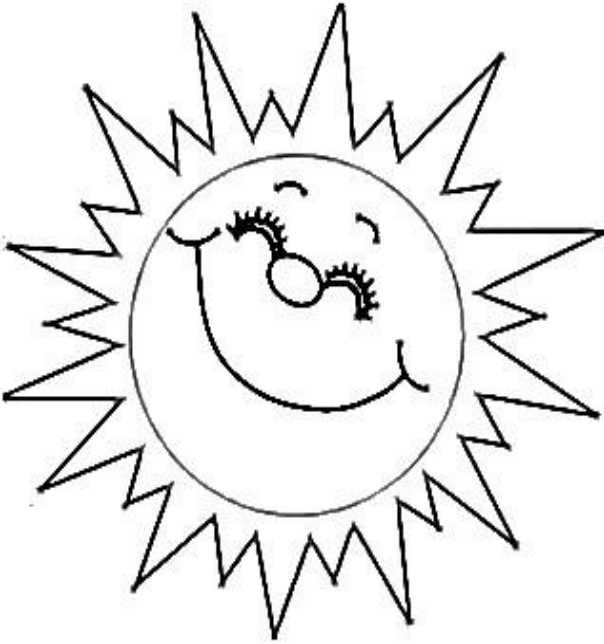

Will these snowflakes do?

Here are some ornaments will they do?

This is a sunshine tree, it makes me happy do you know why?...It's Jesus' day...

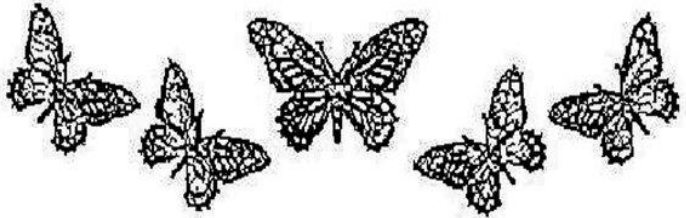

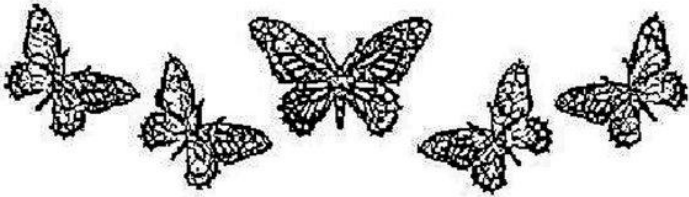

A Tree would not be complete without some kind of toy, I like Teddy Bears they are good friends to play with and talk to, and share with...

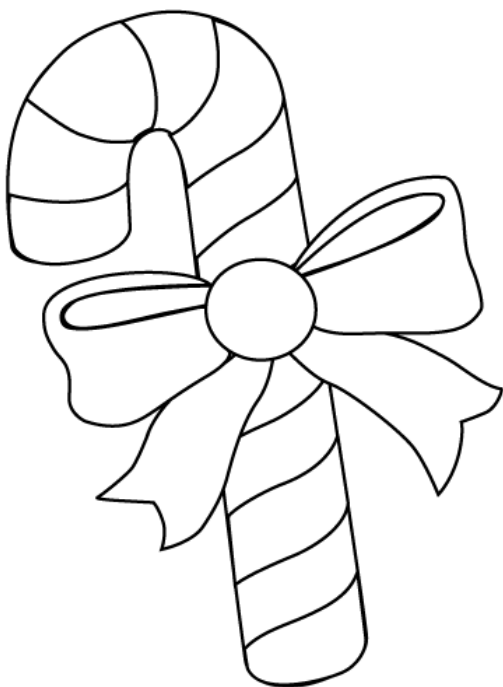

Here is a stocking, I thought you might be tired so I colored it to, but please print your name at the top...

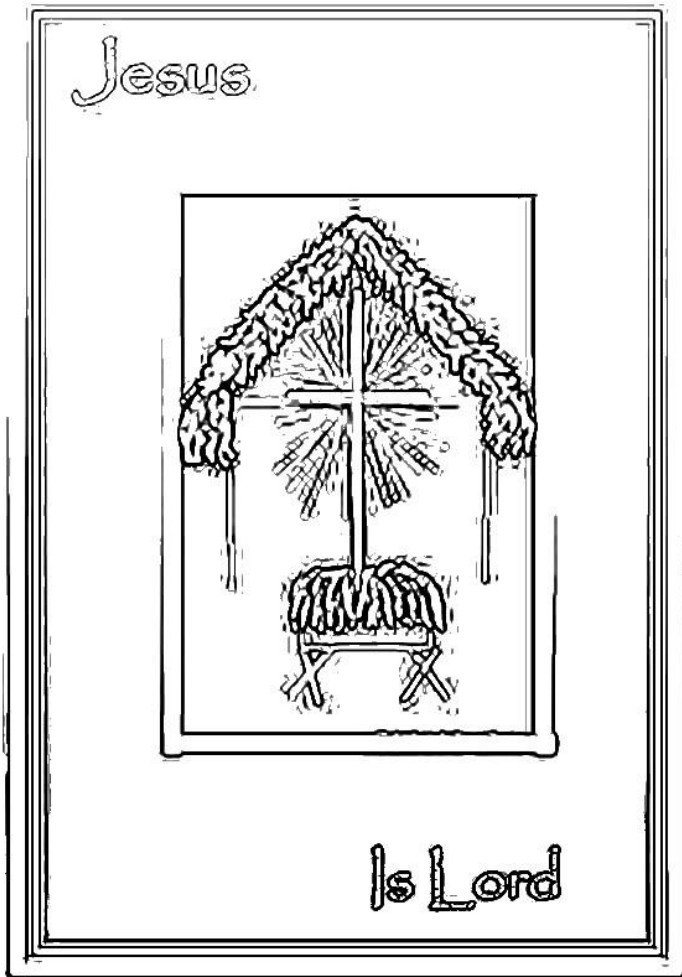

Here are some Butterflies, I thought they might add a special touch; they remind me how we change as we grow...

Here is a Candy Cane....did we forget anything??
Oh I know silly me...

Happy Birthday, Jesus
