Prayer

God Father; in Jesus' name I ask it, Lord well up in each person, overflow them with You. Help them to be like Peter and freely use the name of You my Lord to bless those in need around them. Give each the grace; to exhort, encourage, and to extend a hand to help people up. Lead each one what they are to do and Your will for them, in Jesus' name. Amen....

Scripture

18 But those things, which God before had showed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he has so fulfilled. Isa 50:6; Isa 53:5; Luke 24:27; 19 Repent you therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. Acts 2:38; 20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached to you: 21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. 22 For Moses truly said to the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up to you of your brothers, like to me; him shall you hear in all things whatever he shall say to you. Deut 18:15; Deut 18:18-19; John 1:46; Acts 7:37; 23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. 24 Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. 25 You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in your seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Gen 22:18; Gal 3:8; 26 To you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning a way every one of you from his iniquities.

On the day of Pentecost, the fiery tongues and the roaring as of a mighty wind brought together the astonished crowds. This gave Peter a large audience for his first public proclamation of the Gospel. Apparently some days had passed (2:46-47). The crowds that had come for the Feast of Pentecost returned home, and the city had quieted down. The apostles kept busy instructing the believers and doing miraculous signs (2:42-47), and a lame man, a familiar sight to the whole city, who sat in the temple gate every day to beg, is healed by Peter and John—and the city is all a stir once again. In front of the amazed crowds, Peter attributes the healing to the power of the risen Christ. As Peter tells the Gospel story again, the number of believers increases to 5000 (4:4). (Halley's Bible Handbook; 2000; Page 727; notes and commentary)

" The blessed Holy Spirit awaits to be honored. He will honor Christ as we honor Christ. He waits—and if we will throw open our heart to Him, a new sun will rise on us. I know this by personal experience, If there is anything that God has done through me, it dates back to that solemn, awful, wondrous hour when the Light that never was on land or sea, the Light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world, flashed in on my darkness. It was not my conversion—I had been converted, soundly converted. It was subsequent to conversion. How about you?" (Tozer Speaks; A.W. Tozer; Volume 1; Compiled by Gerald B. Smith; 2010; Wing Spread Publishers; page 177)

" I do not believe in a repetition of Pentecost, but I do believe in a perpetuation of Pentecost—and there is a vast difference between the two. I want to try to discover with you the abiding elements of Pentecost as described in the book of Acts. What came and stayed? What came and went? Now, as I said, I do not believe that Pentecost is to be repeated, but I do believe it is to be perpetuated. I believe that Pentecost did not come and go but that Pentecost came and stayed. You and I are living in the midst of it, if we only knew it. It was true of Pentecost, as it is of all religious experience, that there were elements that were external—so they were variable. God doesn't care very much for the external. We ought to let the Holy Ghost teach us that God places little emphasis on the external aspects. Then, there are the elements which are internal and of the Spirit—they are permanent, and they are always about the same. Then there are elements which are incidental and so are of relative importance. I would not say that they are not important, but I say that they are not critically important. Then, of course, there are elements that are fundamental and so are of vital importance. " (Tozer Speaks; A. W. Tozer; Volume 1; Compiled by Gerald B. Smith; 2010 ; Wing Spread Publishers; pages 196-197)

I am in such awe of God Father; these teachings of pastors in the past...does it not make your spirit tingle, how you can still feel the Holy Spirit, the anointing all through them?? It gives us a clear understanding how the Bible also was inspired to be written, by whom God chose.....Have you ever been talking to someone or went up to someone and said something...it just popped out of your mouth...or all the sudden that person's name came across your mind and you were lead to pray for them??and you thought where did that come from? Than the person you said it to.....goes how did you know that , about the situation I am in? We don't know it is the Holy Spirit...giving revelation a message to deliver to them by either a ; encouragement, confirmation; conviction...all delivered by the Holy Spirit through us.....His hands and feet.....we are the servants.....He speaks through us. If it has not happened to you yet, it will sometime in your life.....It surprises me how people do not know how powerful Jesus is.....every knee will bow to Jesus; everyone.....His name causes hell and the evil one's to tremble...there is power in the name of Jesus....does it mean it makes us the power.....NO.....it is all Jesus.....don't you know have you not heard??.....Jesus Christ is Lord.....James 4: 2-3.... 2 You lust, and have not: you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: you fight and war, yet you have not, because you ask not. 3 You ask, and receive not, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it on your lusts. Matt 20:22; Rom 8:26;

John 14: 6-7.....

6 Jesus said to him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man comes to the Father, but by me. Heb 9:8; John 1:17; John 1:4; John 11:25; John 10:9; 7 If you had known me, you should have known my Father also: and from now on you know him, and have seen him.

John 14: 10-14

10 Believe you not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwells in me, he does the works. John 10:38; John 14:24; John 7:16; John 8:28; John 12:49; John 16:13; John 17:21; John 5:17; 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. 12 Truly, truly, I say to you, He that believes on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father. Matt 21:21; Luke 17:6; Acts 5:12; Acts 19:11; 13 And whatever you shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. Jer 29:12; Matt 7:7; Matt 21:22; Mark 11:24; Luke 11:9; John 15:7; John 16:24; Jas 1:5; 1John 3:22; 14 If you shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

12 Truly, truly, I say to you, He that believes on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father. Matt 21:21; Luke 17:6; Acts 5:12; Acts 19:11; (John 14: 12)

Do you not see it as you read it, read the verse above again.....the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do.....because we are His hands and feet...He enables us to our Father's will, if we do His will.....and obey.....just listen, obey and follow through. He speaks to all of us....through the Holy Spirit, the Word, prayer.....even a song or spiritual Christian reading, or sermon....it may be something small, or something big, it is all Him...we are for His glory.....to accomplish what He sets out to accomplish....so think it not strange, when He uses you....it is not about us, it is not even us, it is Him....all Him....you see He livesin us.....He is very much alive and well....some think He is a fairy tale.....He will not be mocked...and that will come to pass.....and we should tremble at His name....we should fear Him (Holy Reverence) for He is God.....He sends out His Word to accomplish what He wants accomplished and it does not come back empty or void ever...it accomplishes exactly what He sends it out to accomplish.....for He is the truth.....the only way.....

He speaks to us all the time, most of the time we are just simply not listening...I remember a couple of times or more, He kept giving me the same scripture over and over, and I kept thinking I don't get it....than boom it hit, and I thought whoa....that is exactly what has been happening...He was trying to get me to see clearly....it took awhile and I finally did....the particular scripture was about King David and the other man's (poor man's) precious sheep, the only one he had....and how the King took it instead of one of his own, and killed it and served it to the guest....this was happening to me and my situation, anything I enjoyed doing or was precious to me as in family this person was trying to take away from me, severing all ties....a control issue....and God wanted me to see it, and later I got confirmation to it.....so pay attention.....the answer may be right in front of you and He has been trying to tell you for some time. This is why we are to keep Him first, above all daily tasks, jobs, family....go to Him first...fellowship with Him....and just listen.

.....and a lame man, a familiar sight to the whole city, who sat in the temple gate every day to beg, is healed by Peter and John—and the city is all a stir once again. In front of the amazed crowds, Peter attributes the healing to the power of the risen Christ.He that believes on ME, the works that I do shall he do also....and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father.....the question is...will you let Him?? Make up your mind right now....to just believe.....and receive it....and step out when He moves you to....Just think back than there was no microphones, TV or radio.....so how did it spread??Ah the beautiful scent of a rose surrounds me..do you smell it? So awesome the scent of the perfume...ah my Lord...I should know...ah yes...the Rose of Sharon, my Lord so wonderful, so awesome, so powerful...go God go.....

"Most of us will try almost everything else before we finally learn that what we need is not what God can give us, but God Himself. These times often represent years of frustration and misery. But thank God, His Holy Spirit lives in us, teaches us, and reveals truth to us as we continue to study, read, and listen to the Word of God. Be diligent to seek God, you will know Him in a deeper, more intimate way; God will reveal Himself to you; He will be found by you (Jeremiah 29:13, 14). When God wants to manifest Himself, He will. You do not need to get frustrated trying to find God. Just learn to wait on Him and pray, " God, reveal Yourself to me; manifest Your presence to me." God manifests, His presence in many ways. Sometimes we cannot see Him but, as with the wind, we can see the work He does in us. If I am weary, tired, worn-out, frustrated, or bothered about something, and I become refreshed after spending time with God, than I know that the "wind" of the Lord has blown upon me....." Isaiah 53

1 Who has believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? John 12:38; Rom 10:16; 2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he has no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. 3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Ps 22:6-7; Isa 49:7; Isa 52:14; Mark 9:12; 4 Surely he has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. Matt 8:17; 5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was on him; and with his stripes we are healed. Rom 4:25; 1 Cor 15:3; 1 Pet 2:24; 6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. 7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opens not his mouth. Matt 26:63; Matt 27:12; Matt 27:14; Mark 14:61; Mark 15:5; Acts 8:32; 8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. 9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. 1 Pet 2:22; 1 John 3:5; 10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he has put him to grief: when you shall make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. 11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. 12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he has poured out his soul to death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Mark 15:28; Luke 22:37; Luke 23:34;
