Prayer

God Father; in Jesus’ name I ask it, give each one wisdom, knowledge in You my Lord; teach the sheep. You are such a awesome Shepherd. Thank You for giving me the Words to write, to send out. Lord cause mercy, compassion, caring, kindness to well up in us and cause us to extend a hand to those in need, as You have taught us, for if we have learned from You than You enable us to do it. Thank You my Lord for loving us first and allowing us to love You in return and others. For the commandment is love, to love our neighbors as ourselves. I ask my prayer in Jesus’ name. Amen...

Scripture

6 “I have revealed your name to the men you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have obeyed your word. 7 Now they understand that everything you have given me comes from you, 8 because I have given them the words you have given me. They accepted them and really understand that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. John 16:27; 9 I am praying on behalf of them. I am not praying on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those you have given me, because they belong to you. 10 Everything I have belongs to you, and everything you have belongs to me, and I have been glorified by them. John 16:15; 11 I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them safe in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one. 12 When I was with them I kept them safe and watched over them in your name that you have given me. Not one of them was lost except the one destined for destruction, so that the scripture could be fulfilled. John 6:39; John 10:28; John 18:9; Isa 8:18; Heb 2:13; Ps 109:8; 13 But now I am coming to you, and I am saying these things in the world, so they may experience my joy completed in themselves. 14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them, because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. John 15:19; 15 I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but that you keep them safe from the evil one. 16 They do not belong to the world just as I do not belong to the world. 17 Set them apart in the truth; your word is truth. John 8:40; 18 Just as you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. John 20:21; 19 And I set myself apart on their behalf, so that they too may be truly set apart

YOU are a legalist and YOU are passing judgment.....!!! To be a leader of a flock, you are to protect the flock, the leader of the flock, the pastor is held accountable to a higher degree because as a servant he is to be a good steward of what God has given him to take care of , and if something is seen that is sin, the pastor is to show the flock the way, and to bring council, and in earnest warn the flock. We are to go to the person in council, in agape love, and discuss with them the situation, and give them scripture to back it up....not in I am better than thou attitude, but so the person is given wise council, if that does not work, than you go again and take someone from the flock, and you both go and council the person, if that does not work you take a third person and go again. Always praying; before, after and during....the person offering council, support needs to make sure, that they have taken care of anything in their life that needs taken care of, before they go.....thus we have.....first get the plank out of your own eye, than go to your brother. It is done in compassion, agape love, and you come along beside that person...sometimes they will refuse, and than you keep praying. God does not want any to be lost, and yes, some will be and God does give mankind the right to go straight to hell. Man wanted freewill, and God gave it. When we get saved; than changes begin and God changes what He wants changed and when. We are to separate ourselves from the world; come out of them....and be ye separatebeing saved is a privilege not a convenience.....it is oh I am a Christian now I am saved, so now I go about my worldly ways.....NO, He said go and sin NO More...will we stumble?? Yes, from time to time, and we repent and correct our selves....it is not a license to ...Oh well; the porn, adultery, fornication , stealing, murder.....I am saved so it's covered, and I will repent tomorrow....DO YOU NOT KNOW, THAT GOD SEE'S YOUR HEART AND INTENT??? Know this also God will not be mocked.....He is God...not a fairy tale....you may think you are getting away with it, but you are not..... We are to guard each other, support each other....least we fall...."judge not least ye be judged as you judge".....that's right..that is why we take care of any problems in our live than go council the person....it is a safeguard to keep each other from falling....that's why it is in the Bible.....Believe me when I was downcast; I was so overjoyed that someone reached down to help pull me back up when I was drowning, I thought it was almost over, battle after battle, I was exhausted...the person whom came along beside me, gave me; encouragement, prayer, fellowship, friendship, and Bible study....it helped me to come back into focus and stay on track.....do you not know God works through people also to help supply your needs?? Before this person a believer came into my life, the Holy Spirit said; I am sending someone to you much like Elisha....strong in physical battle and spiritual warfare....I looked and waited for three years, testing the spirits as a new person came into my life to see if it was the person being sent.....three fouls and one home run.

Pearls before swine... the person says saved or they are not, and no matter what you say they will not believe it..so you make the statement ;council in love and compassion and mercy, than drop it and pray for them continually, if God wants you to go back to them He will tell you. It is His business, He may be working in their life, and drawing them.....or you may be the seed planter...and than someone else comes along and plants another seed, than another, than another till they are redeemed.....(none of this is to be done in hateful, judgment attitude, abuse, or violence or back biting) We are to lead them to Him, He draws them, it does not say ram it down the throat....we are not to cause strife, contention, quarreling.....

Person is hateful, rude, violent in attitude.....turn and walk away....shake it off, they are not rejecting you, they are rejecting Jesus.....remember He said we would be hated for His name's sake. We can defend ourselves or our families if they mean us physical harm (legally). Do not react instead respond, you would be surprised how a calm, peaceful presence sometimes defuses a situation. Sometimes.....I say I do not want to talk about that right now, and turn and walk away.....you are defusing the situation...giving them time to come back into control. You are in essence getting out of their space, territory (some that space is 5 ft. a way; others, 2 feet and others face to face, it just depends on the person, it is fight or flight and believe me some come up swinging).

Conviction....The state of being convinced or convicted; strong persuasion or belief; especially, the state of being convicted of sin, or by one's conscience. (The Holy Spirit; brings conviction when we are doing something wrong, sin and warns us also of situations we are in, He teaches us, mentors us, helps protect us, prays in utterance for us when we do not know what to pray, He tells us when something or someone is a miss (discernment), encourages us to test the spirits always, brings scripture to mind for our situations.)

Communicate...To make known; to recount; to give; to impart; as, to communicate information to any one. To share or participate; to possess or enjoy in common; to have sympathy. To have intercourse or to be the means of intercourse; as, to communicate with another on business; to be connected; as, a communicating artery.

Assumption...The act of taking for granted, or supposing a thing without proof; supposition; unwarrantable claim.

Condemnation... The act of condemning or pronouncing to be wrong; censure; blame; disapprobation. The act of judicially condemning, or adjudging guilty, unfit for use, or forfeited; the act of dooming to punishment or forfeiture. (this does not come from God, as strife does not or temptation.)

Judgment... The act of judging; the operation of the mind, involving comparison and discrimination, by which a knowledge of the values and relations of things, whether of moral qualities, intellectual concepts, logical propositions, or material facts, is obtained; as, by careful judgment he avoided the peril; by a series of wrong judgments he forfeited confidence.

Tradition-The unwritten or oral delivery of information, opinions, doctrines, practices, rites, and customs, from father to son, or from ancestors to posterity; the transmission of any knowledge, opinions, or practice, from forefathers to descendants by oral communication, without written memorials.

Customs.. Frequent repetition of the same act; way of acting common to many; ordinary manner; habitual practice; usage; method of doing or living.

Backward..Unwilling; averse; reluctant; hesitating; loath

Forward..Ardent; eager; earnest; in an ill sense, less reserved or modest than is proper; bold; confident; as, the boy is too forward for his years.

Legalist..strict adherence, or the principle of strict adherence, to law or prescription, esp. to the letter rather than the spirit.

Oppression..To impose excessive burdens upon; to overload; hence, to treat with unjust rigor or with cruelty .

Iniquity..Gross injustice; unfairness; wickedness; sin; as, the iniquity of bribery; the iniquity of an unjust judge.

Weakness..The quality or state of being weak; want of strength or firmness; lack of vigor; want of resolution or of moral strength; feebleness.

Compassion..Literally, suffering with another; a sensation of sorrow excited by the distress or misfortunes of another; pity; commiseration.

Mercy..Compassionate treatment of the unfortunate and helpless; sometimes, favor, beneficence.

Some other words that involve us through out life (which would be a good personal or family study); pain, suffering , false, gentle, pitiful, wounded, righteousness, anointing, just, unjust, vanity, worthy, sin, image, worldly...etc. can you think of anymore?? Ask your spouse or kids.....(homework, homework) Really it does help to look things up also in the Bible by subject...it gives you more knowledge....

A servant's job is to teach you how to live in God, to help safeguard you, to warn you, to teach you all about Him, to provide council, prayer....have you ever seen a person whom shepherd's a flock, herd? What do they do? When one of the animals wonders off what do they do? If a servant, church, ministry, pastor is not guiding, mentoring, teaching you in Him; so that eventually you do the same thing in turn for someone else.....than something is amissif the Word of God is not taught in full context, you are not learning about Jesus, you never feel the Holy Spirit.....than what kind of place are you in??

The wolves in sheep's clothing are running rampant, that is why this teaching on the scripture section. Use the discernment you have and test the spirits always....so much is going on now in the world, be in good fellowship, church, prayer, Bible study.....for in those days the people will look for people to tickle their ears, hearing what they want to hear, so they can do what they want to do, and it's ok....that is not God...be warned.....be aware least you fall or any of us.....

Be blessed.....
