Prayer

God Father; in Jesus’ name I ask it, in our day to day living remind us, give us the will to keep You first. Give us God’s will for the day and plans, not our plans. Keep each person and their families and bless them and give them favor. Give each one peace. Remind us to “let go, let God.” Cause our faith to well up in believing, give us hope in our desire and meditation. I pray that for each it is for Your glory, and not for our glory, to be seen. Let us all practice the greatest gift....love, in Jesus’ name. Amen...

Scripture

16 But Simon Peter was left standing outside by the door. So the other disciple who was acquainted with the high priest came out and spoke to the slave girl who watched the door, and brought Peter inside. 17 The girl who was the doorkeeper said to Peter, “You’re not one of this man’s disciples too, are you?” He replied, “I am not.

John 18: 16-17

25 Meanwhile Simon Peter was standing in the courtyard warming himself. They said to him, “You aren’t one of his disciples too, are you?” Peter denied it: “I am not!” Matt 26:71; Mark 14:69; Luke 22:58; 26 One of the high priest’s slaves, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, “Did I not see you in the orchard with him?” 27 Then Peter denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed. John 13:38;

Also in Matthew 26: 47-56; Mark 14:43-50 and Luke 22:47-53. It was about midnight. The roman garrison, consisting of a cohort of soldiers, about 500 or 600, led by the chief captain, with emissaries from the high priest evidently thinking they were on a dangerous mission, were guided by Judas to the place of Jesus' retreat, the garden. As they streamed out of the East Gate, down the Kedron road, with lanterns, torches and weapons, they were visible from the garden where Jesus was, as they approached, Jesus, by His unseen power, caused them to fall to the ground, to make them understand that they could not take Him against His will. To make Jesus' identification certain, Judas pointed him out by kissing Him.

In verse 5-8; Jesus is referring to himself as I AM the eternal name of God. I AM which is Jehovah and means the becoming one. (11) Jesus had resigned completely to the will of the Father. (13) At this time in Jewish history there were two high priests, Annas and Caiaphas. (15) Another disciple is referring to John. (23) Instead of turning the other cheek, Jesus rebuked him the attendant who struck Jesus. (28) Pilate's judgment hall was in the court of the Gentiles and would make a Jew ceremonially unclean prior to the Passover. In the name of religion the Jew's were careful to observe their traditional law, yet they wanted to see Jesus crucified. The Jews didn't use crucifixion, it was a Roman way of putting people to death. Jesus was questioning Pilate's sincerity in asking Him who He was. Jesus answered, " You said it" literally, the inference of what you are saying is correct. In asking " What is Truth?" Pilate was being cynical. Pilate was living near the end of the age of Greek philosophy, a time when all hope in ever discovering truth was gone. Jesus was too much of a threat to the security and position of the religious leaders. ( New Testament Study Guide; 2005; Chuck Smith; Study Guide Notes; Page 50)

Peter's denial occurred in the court of the high priest, as Jesus was being condemned. Peter had just been willing to fight the whole Roman garrison alone. He was not a coward by any means. Peter vehemently denied that he knew Jesus, Jesus turned and looked at him, that look broke Peter's heart. The cock crowed.....

A lot of people may accuse Peter for forsaking Jesus....but what about us?? How many times do we say later Lord?? I am busy today Lord, I will catch up with You later....Lord I have chores to do, not now. Lord I have to fix supper...Lord I have to play golf.....Lord my favorite TV show/sports are on, so I will be right with You when this is over. Lord I have to work right now, but You know I love You. That later never comes, and people have just made a string of false idols.....and also denied God.....We are to keep God first, above; family, marriage, job, kids, friends, TV.....everything.....we are to keep Him first, above everything and anything....especially above our desires and wants.....and than people say "God" why don't You answer me, why won't You talk to me.....answer... He is, and has been probably just about all day, the nudges here and there, but we are busy, busy.....you know. Some people just don't realize we were created for His glory, and not created for our glory.....in humanistic way, we thus deny Him. I really wonder today with things coming fast and happening fast, and everything going on.....I wonder if my friends will be part of the "falling away" So many people pray, they don't get an answer a minute later, they ask for prayer in the next breath again another minute passes and well they have the attitude; " I am out of here". They do not know that it is His timing not ours and sometimes He does not give us something because it is not His will or it is not good for us.....so pray.....than ask for confirmation in all your plans.....if He is not in it....if it is not from Him.....than it should be I am out of here.....

So....how is your schedule today??.....
