Prayer

God Father; in Jesus’ name I ask it, Lord I ask that You well up in each person and flood them with Your love. Give each the will to study the Word and also to hear it. Fill each with Your will for them and plans for the day. Give each one peace, and supply all their needs, I ask it in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Scripture

11 Jesus replied, “You would have no authority over me at all, unless it was given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of greater sin.”

12 From this point on, Pilate tried to release him. But the Jewish leaders shouted out, “If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar! Everyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar!” Acts 17:7; 13 When Pilate heard these words he brought Jesus outside and sat down on the judgment seat in the place called “The Stone Pavement” (Gabbatha in Aramaic). 14 (Now it was the day of preparation for the Passover, about noon.) Pilate said to the Jewish leaders, “Look, here is your king!”

15 Then they shouted out, “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!” Pilate asked, “Shall I crucify your king?” The high priests replied, “We have no king except Caesar!” Gen 49:10; 16 Then Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.

Some people do not seem to understand, though Jesus was crucified (murdered), He had no sin, He was judged falsely....and though He could have called thousands of angels.....He was beaten, spit upon, whipped...and hung on the cross, He did God's will and went willingly.....for you and for me.....He went all through that for us, and others before us.....A person on the prayer line one time admonished me saying, He could have called the angels, to say anything other is not of faith.....my comment still remains the same, He was a innocent man, He was falsely accused, He was murdered.....though He could of called the angels, He chose God's will, to be the atoning blood for us.....He was the atoning blood sacrifice , He is the new blood covenant, the New Testament; He is King of king's, Priest of priest's, Lord of lord's...to make it as a fairy tale, picnic is false. Though He willingly suffered, was abused and beaten.....He chose to.....He chose to die for you....so tell me how many people in your life time have died for you...?? That chose to so you could be saved, and gave up His life blood for you?? As a parent those whom have kids....can you think how God felt, seeing the people He created; abusing, beating, accusing and killing His Son?? Yes, He knew before it all took place, it was His will....still that had to have hurt....for when it was done to the Son....it was done to God.....He could have destroyed all of earth, us in less than a twinkling of an eye....do you know how fast that is??.....Instead He provided a way out for us to be forgiven....He loves you that much...“no greater gift than a man lays down His life for His friends” He suffered.....it was not a picnic or a fairy tale movie...the whip had like nails in the bottom of it....which tear the flesh, He was beaten.....He had nails driven through his wrists....(Image that pin prick we sometimes get, and 10 zillion times worse) anyone else would have passed out from the pain.....He did not even cry out.....listen.....tick, tick.....the last beat of Jesus' heart that day, do you feel it....do you feel the blood dripping down, pooling at His feet?

How overjoyed God must have been when He drew His last breath and returned home to Him, to not be abused again.....now He is Lord of lord's, He overcame death.....will you?? Think about it.....His cup is coming around to you, will you drink?? Or run??.....God will not be mocked.....He is God....The great falling away is coming.....stay in the Word, fellowship and pray.....and stay in church...Test the spirits.....the wolves in sheep's clothing are coming out of the wood work.....

The "Blood and Water" Jesus was already dead when the spear pierced His side, after being on the cross six hours. Some medical people have said that in the case of heart rupture, and in that case only, the blood collects in the pericardium, the lining around the wall of the heart, and divides into a sort of bloody clot and a watery serum. If this is a fact, then the actual immediate physical cause of Jesus' death was heart rupture. Under intense pain, and the pressure of His wildly raging blood, his heart burst open. It may be that Jesus, literally, died of a heart broken over the sin of the world. It may be that suffering for human sin is more than the human constitution can stand. There may be a mystic parallel to Genesis 2:21-22. As God took from Adam's side, in sleep, that from which He made a bride for Adam, so He took from Jesus' side, in sleep on the cross that from which He made the Church, the bride of Jesus.

The "Burial" Joseph and Nicodemus, both members of the Sanhedrin, secret disciples, secret in the hour of Jesus' popularity, now, the hour of His humiliation, came out boldly to share with Jesus the shame of His cross. All hail, Joseph all hail, Nicodemus! The "Holy Shroud" The scientific American of March, 1937, contained an article by a French scientist about a sheet of linen cloth that was in a Catholic church at Turin, Italy which he believed to have been the actual winding sheet of Jesus body. He described it as being 14 feet long, 3 feet 7 inches wide, with negative images of the front and back of a full grown human body, indicating that the man was laid on one half, and the other half was folded over lengthwise. The figures, he claimed, are not paintings, but images produced by ammoniac vapors, given off in great abundance in sweat produced by intense suffering. The scourge marks, the wound in the hands, on the head, and in the side, are plainly visible, with evidence that serum and blood flowed from the wound. It is unmistakable the image of a man crucified, with every detail dovetailing with the Scripture account, and with the countenance of a man of noble appearance. It first appeared in France in 1355, with notices that it had been seen in Constantinople 1204. However, we do not know for sure whether it is a fake or the real shroud of Jesus.

Where Jesus was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein was never man yet laid. This means that the tomb in which Jesus was buried was very close to the place where He was crucified.( Mark 15:21-41). General Christian Gordon, 1881, found at the west foot of the "Skull Hill" a garden, he set a gang of men to digging, and under 5 feet of rubbish, he found a tomb of Roman times, cut in a wall of solid rock, with a trench in front where the stone rolled to the door. The tomb is a room 14 feet wide, 10 feet deep, 7 1/2 feet high; as you enter, there are, at the right, two graves, one next to the front wall, and on next to the back wall. They are slightly lower than the floor of the room, with a low dividing wall between. The front grave seems never to have been completed. Indications were that only the rear grave had ever been occupied, and that with no marks of mortal corruption. The tomb is sufficiently large for a company of women and two angels to stand inside, with room at the head and feet where an angel could sit (Mark 16:5; John 20:12). A window where, at dawn, the sunlight would fall on the occupied grave. According to Eusehios, the Roman Emperor Hadrian, in his persecution of the Christians, A.D. 135, built a temple of Venus over the tomb where Jesus had been buried. Constantine, the first Christian Emperor, A.D. 330, destroyed this temple of Venus. General Gordon, in the debris which he cleared away from the tomb found a shrine-stone of Venus. He found traces of a building that had been erected over the tomb. Above the tomb entrance two recesses characteristic of Venus temples. In a vault adjoining the tomb, a tombstone was found, inscribed, "Buried near his Lord." (Halley's Bible Handbook; 1965; pages 551-552)
