Prayer

God Father; in Jesus' name I ask it, Lord I ask that You feed the sheep through Your servants. Fill each person with Your will for them and plans. I pray that they all keep You first above; spouses, family, jobs. I ask that You fill them with the will to study the Bible daily and to pray without ceasing, I ask it in Jesus' name. Amen....

Scripture

10 But you who eat vegetables only – why do you judge your brother or sister? And you who eat everything – why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. Matt 25:31; 2Cor 5:10; 11 For it is written, “As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to me, and every tongue will give praise to God.” Isa 45:23; Phil 2:10; 12 Therefore, each of us will give an account of himself to God. Ps 62:12; Jer 17:10; Jer 32:19; Matt 16:27; Rom 2:6; 1Cor 3:8; 2Cor 5:10; Gal 6:5; Rev 2:23; Rev 22:12;

13 Therefore we must not pass judgment on one another, but rather determine never to place an obstacle or a trap before a brother or sister. 1Cor 10:32; 2Cor 6:3; 14 I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean in itself; still, it is unclean to the one who considers it unclean. Matt 15:11; Acts 10:15; 1Cor 8:4; 1Tim 4:4; 15 For if your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not destroy by your food someone for whom Christ died. 1Cor 8:11; 16 Therefore do not let what you consider good be spoken of as evil. 17 For the kingdom of God does not consist of food and drink, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. 1Cor 8:8; 18 For the one who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by people.

We should not judge one another in such things as the eating or not eating of certain foods and the observing of special days. The food referred to may be meat that had been offered in sacrifice to idols (1 Corin. 8). The sacred days may refer to the Jewish insistence that Gentiles observe the Sabbath and other Jewish feast days. The Lord's day, the first day of the week, was the Christian's day. If Jewish or gentile Christians wanted to observe, in addition, the Jewish Sabbath, that was their privilege. But they must not insist that others do the same thing. (Halley's Bible Handbook; 2000, history and commentaries; page 271),

Judging others: We shouldn't judge those who are weak in faith but accept them with love. (vv. 2-3) Paul here talks of vegetarians who were weak in the faith because they felt convicted about eating, meat. Others who were weak in the faith felt that there were certain days when the Lord should be worshiped. Paul encouraged the Christians to allow each other their personal convictions without trying to put them on everyone else. To set at naught a brother is to say that he isn't a Christian. When we stand before God for judgment, it won't be to determine our salvation, for that is already secure. He'll judge our works and the motivation behind our works, then give us our place in His kingdom (Philippians 2: 10, 11). Paul warns against enjoying our freedom in Christ to the detriment of our weaker fellow Christians. God and men accept us if we're walking in the Spirit. We shouldn't destroy the work of God in a person's life because we disagree about eating meat. We can do something that isn't wrong in itself, but is evil because it offends someone else. It's wrong to try to agree someone out of his convictions, since his conscience will condemn him if he is committing sin. (New Testament Study Guide; 2005; Chuck Smith; commentary)

Don't we see a lot of this today? One Church says this is okay and than a another one will say, NO it's this way. So much of disagreement going on today. Than we have many Churches that think they are the only Church, that they are the only one's approved by God. So how do you know who is right and who is wrong? Read the Bible, if it does not line up with the Word what they are teaching, than they are not on the up and up. Next; what is their doctrine? What is their mission and mission statement? Do they have any missions in your neighborhood? What are other people saying about them (today with computers, and internet, you can research any denomination or non-denomination, some of it may be hearsay, if there are 3 or 4 complaints on the same topic than I would research carefully.) Do you feel the Holy Spirit there? Do you hear them speak of Jesus at all? (sounds funny I know but Satan even believes in God). Is the teaching in the Word accurate, or a lot of manmade thoughts in it, like well this means this and that, but you have read and studied the Word and know it does not say that. Is there prayer and fellowship there? Do the people act like family or they from out of this world? Is there a lot of condemnation? If there is that is not God, He only brings conviction. How often do they pass the plate?? Do they share budget info so that you know they are being; good stewards of what God has given them to take care of? When you need help, is anybody home? Every Church has overhead/bills, but if all they teach on is money that they need? (where God guides, He provides). When the collection is taken are you belittled because ...you can do better?.....NO, this is not a joke.....this is happening in a lot of churches, today. If a person has counseling there is it broadcast on the microphone? Are you looked down upon, if you are a new Christian? Do they provide mentors, someone to answer questions. I always pray before I attend/ or visit a Church. I also pray and ask Jesus to guide me to a Church He prefers me to fellowship in. If your spirit is not being fed also, if you keep going, and you don't feel your spirit being fed and it happens all the time, than you are probably in the wrong church....it does not matter if Mom/Dad or Aunt Betty Sue attended there, just going to Church will not get you into heaven, neither will works. I know all this above sounds funny, but when I hear this Scripture I think of this. How do I know?? I frequently visit other Churches by invitation; I thirst for teaching; fellowship, so I go when the Lord leads me. I have been in some really strange Churches, but every single Church I was invited to by a person, thinks their Church is the Church. As I said; I pray and ask before I go, to be led by Him. I have learned many different formats for preaching, and God allowed me to witness that. I am weary of Churches that speak of Jesus as was, when He is, He is very much alive and well, pastors are the leaders/stewards, not God. Some may disagree with me but I really don't believe heaven will have different seating areas for different denominations, we are one body with many parts. Am I saying all Churches/denominations are on the up and up? No, I am not....you are allowed to test the spirits, and to use wisdom and ask for confirmation.....if it does not line up with, the Bible than question it. Today I have witnessed so many mis-truths, so be aware of your surroundings.

What am I? Non-denomination, but of God's denomination. We associate with Calvary Chapel in affiliation with some of their pastors, and also one from the Wesleyan Church (which is my home church) and I fellowship with Calvary Chapel Church. Spirit Walker Ministry/Chapel Flock is a ministry without walls, with virtual Chapel's on line, a devotional/newsletter/Bible Study and will be starting Bible studies in my home.....

Be blessed.....

1 After Moses the LORD's servant died, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' assistant: Deut 34:5; Deut 1:38; 2 "Moses my servant is dead. Get ready!¹ Cross the Jordan River!² Lead these people into the land which I am ready to hand over to them.³ 3 I am handing over to you every place you set foot, as I promised Moses.¹ Deut 11:24; Josh 14:9; 4 Your territory will extend from the wilderness in the south to Lebanon in the north. It will extend all the way to the great River Euphrates in the east (including all of Syria)¹ and all the way to the Mediterranean Sea² in the west.³ 5 No one will be able to resist you¹ all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not abandon you or leave you alone. Deut 31:6; Deut 31:8; Heb 13:5-6; 6 Be strong and brave! You must lead these people in the conquest of this land that I solemnly promised their ancestors I would hand over to them.¹ Deut 31:23; 7 Make sure you are¹ very strong and brave! Carefully obey² all the law my servant Moses charged you to keep!³ Do not swerve from it to the right or to the left, so that you may be successful⁴ in all you do.⁵ Deut 5:32; Deut 28:14; 8 This law scroll must not leave your lips!¹ You must memorize it² day and night so you can carefully obey³ all that is written in it. Then you will prosper⁴ and be successful.⁵ Ps 1:2; 9 I repeat,¹ be strong and brave! Don't be afraid and don't panic,² for I, the LORD your God, am with you in all you do."³
