Prayer.....

Jesus; in Your name I ask it, help us to be changed into what You want, to give You glory. Lord I know changes are not easy sometimes, but when we look back than we understand why. Sometimes I know that what You have given us to do, that there has to be a change. That what You give us to do, that most of the time it will not be accomplished how we think, but always how You think, and in Your will for us. Help us to know that any change in our life, that You are in control, for You are God. In Jesus' name I ask it. Amen.

But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marveled.

6 Now at that feast he released to them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. Matt 27:15; Luke 23:17; John 18:39; 7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. Matt 27:16; Luke 23:19; John 18:40; 8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done to them. 9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will you that I release to you the King of the Jews? 10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy. 11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas to them. Matt 27:20; Luke 23:18; John 18:40; Acts 3:14;

12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, What will you then that I shall do to him whom you call the King of the Jews? 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas to them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. Matt 27:26; John 19:1;

Mark 15: 6-15

Jesus; committed NO crime, they betrayed Him, it was done because of envy, and they delivered Him up. Who did? The Jews and Romans and Pilate in reality everyone did. They feared Jesus, He was different, He taught the Word but the hypocrite was not in Him. He spoke the truth, something new, instead of legalism and He was ruining a good thing for some of them; the priests, scribes, elders, the Kings. Jesus was bringing the New Covenant. Which is still today. All of the prophecies will be fulfilled when Jesus takes His throne on earth. The people were afraid of change....

Change is part of life; sometimes we fight against it, sometimes we embrace it. Change not many people care for change. The fact is though our whole lives there is plenty of change. As we grow in knowledge in Him a closer love walk, there is change. BC before we are saved and AD after we are saved there is change, if there isn't than most of the time the person is probably not saved, or did not take it seriously, they just said it, to please someone, to go along with the flow.

When we are born we come from the womb, into the world, that is change. When we are infants, we grow, and learn to think and focus that is change. When we become toddlers, we get taller, we walk, we discover and touch everything with our hands and mouth and we make sounds trying to talk, that is change. When we become a child, that is change, we go to school we learn, think Mom and Dad are king and queen, we have changed. When we become a teenager, we have a lot to deal with, sort of sub adults, and we discover the opposite sex, that is change. When we find a person to love, and both agree to get married and spend their lives together, that is change. When we become parents, that is change, and soon we might see our us becoming our Mom or Dad, just like them, that is change. When the kids are raised, leave home off to college or on their own, that is change. When we have grand kids that is change. When someone we love dies, that is change. It is just life change. Some changes are good, some are so different we think that it is bad and nothing can come of it. We become so accustomed in our routines that many times a change can bring the best of us into a tail spin. With change comes new territory learning new things.....but in reality is not life about learning??.....When we quit learning than something is really wrong.

There are some life events in our lives that are landmarks; Birth, Saved, Marriage, Death.....To change the form of; to change in shape or appearance; to metamorphose; as, a caterpillar is ultimately transformed into a butterfly. To change in nature, disposition, heart, character, or the like; to convert. To be changed in form; to be metamorphosed. Maybe instead of the word change, we should think of it as being transformed.

Philippians 3:20 For our conversation (citizenship) is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

Philippians 3:21 who, in the exercise of the power which He has even to subject all things to Himself, will transform this body of our humiliation until it resembles His own glorious body

Ephesians 2:19 Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household,

Romans 8:29 For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

1 Corinthians 15:49 And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven.

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in his [own] image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Colossians 3:10 and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

Ephesians 4:24 and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

Change, maybe instead of dreading it or even being in fear of it, step out and do it anyway. We each have a pathway, there may be some variance for each of us, but in our journey of life, there will be many pebbles along the path (changes, new things, new friendships, new directions; grief, sorrow) it is all change, we are being transformed. Think of the butterfly; how ugly in the beginning, sometimes dark and dirty and fearsome looking, than change goes into a cocoon (life changes) and than time goes by (seasons) and than suddenly a beautiful, stunning or handsome (for the guys) butterfly.....all that labor and than suddenly.....all those pebbles in our lives....bring about the change, the transformation of us.....Genesis 1: 27 So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them. That scripture takes on a whole full meaning, we are being changed so that we are COMPLETELY created into His image. Inside and outside. Completely, totally changed, transformed.

The changes we experience in life, know matter what they are ; jobs, friends, etc. are completing us, making us a total package, that belongs totally to Him. Purification, being gone all through, and He brings about change, in everything and gets us to the exact place and time that He wants so that we are lined up; either a change in us or a change in our lives.....to finish us, to complete us.

So....instead of being like the ones whom did to Jesus what they did, because they feared change.....maybe we should embrace it. Yeah I know....but, but.....He is in control He knows us and He knows what He is doing, His ways are higher than ours. I don't like changes a lot either most of the time though, most of them have turned out exciting....something new. When God is done with something, He creates change, to move us forward.....it is one door closing and a new door opening.....that is change....but it is also transformation....

Jesus; went through changes to, think about it....and we are for God's glory.

Thy word [is] a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Praying for all our soldiers. PLEASE KEEP RE-POSTING. MOST OF ALL - PRAY! It's not going our way fully over there right now. We need the Hand of God big time!

SANHEDRIN—

san'-he-drin (canhedhrin, the Talmudic transcription of the Greek sunedrion):

1. Name:

The Sanhedrin was, at and before the time of Christ, the name for the highest Jewish tribunal, of 71 members, in Jerusalem, and also for the lower tribunals, of 23 members, of which Jerusalem had two (Tosephta' Chaghighah 11 9; Sanhedrin 1 6; 11 2). It is derived from sun, "together," and hedra, "seat." In Greek and Roman literature the senates of Sparta, Carthage, and even Rome, are so called (compare Pausan. iii.11, 2; Polyb. iii0.22; Dion Cassius xl.49). In Josephus we meet with the word for the first time in connection with the governor Gabinius (57-55 B.C.), who divided the whole of Palestine into 5 sunedria (Ant., XIV, v, 4), or sunodoi (B. J., I, viii, 5); and with the term sunedrion for the high council in Jerusalem first in Ant., XIV, ix, 3-5, in connection with Herod, who, when a youth, had to appear before the sunedrin at Jerusalem to answer for his doings in Galilee. But before that date the word appears in the Septuagint version of Proverbs (circa 130 B.C.), especially in 22:10; 31:23, as an equivalent for the Mishnaic beth-din = "judgment chamber."

In the New Testament the word sometimes, especially when used in the plural (Matthew 10:17 Mark 13:9; compare Sanhedrin 1 5), means simply "court of justice," i.e. any judiciary (Matthew 5:22). But in most cases it is used to designate the supreme Jewish Court of Justice in Jerusalem, in which the Lord was carried on, and before which the apostles (especially Peter and John, Stephen, and Paul) had to justify themselves (Matthew 26:59 Mark 14:55; Mark 15:1 Luke 22:66 John 11:47 Acts 4:15; Acts 5:21; 6:12; 22:30; 23:1; 24:20). Sometimes presbuterion (Luke 22:66 Acts 22:5) and gerousia (Acts 5:21) are substituted for sunedrion.
